

MONEY EASIER IN LAST WEEK THAN IN YEARS

Financial Market Is Strong;
Foreign Exchange Better
in Spite French Crisis

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Greater ease of money than at any corresponding period in several years, further heavy liquidation of frozen credits and indications of business revival were constructive features of the week in the financial markets.

Less encouraging aspects of the early days of the new year were presented by the European situation. It was considered noteworthy, however, that foreign exchanges with few exceptions actually strengthened in the face of the French political crisis.

The resignation of the Briand ministry and its implications in relations to the arms conference, the Cannes parleys and the proposed Geneva assembly were nevertheless principal subjects of discussion and concern among international bankers.

Stocks, other than a few specialties, which declined to so-called "recovery prices," moved to higher ground after several days of hesitation. The bond market showed consistent strength on a very large output in which federal war issues and seasoned rails registered highest prices of the past two or three years.

The very small gain in December tonnage represented by the United States Steel corporation caused little surprise. It was generally known in trade circles that independent producers had been operating at less than 30 per cent of capacity in the final month of 1921.

Forecasts of better business conditions are based largely on authorized statements that most industries' annual inventories involving drastic reductions have been taken. Further reduction of grain and cotton bills is evidenced by lower discount and interest rates fixed by the federal reserve banks at Minneapolis and Dallas.

Comparatively few underwritings were announced, and these were chiefly in the nature of state or municipal offerings including a $6,000,000 Louisiana bond issue. Cuban and South American financial projects are impending, but new European credits are said to hinge on the outcome of the Anglo-French situation.

PITIES AMERICAN MEN
LONDON, Jan. 14.—Mrs. Margaret Nevins, a well-known English social worker, who recently visited the courts in New York and Massachusetts, told the Women's Freedom League that "in America the law is all on the side of the woman." She spoke sympathetically of American husbands who went to prison rather than pay alimony to deserted wives.

15 Husbands, All Yanks

MRS. HELEN DREXLER

GENEVA, Ill., Jan. 14.—Not unlike the sailor who has a "sweetheart in every port" is the case of Mrs. Helen Ferguson Drexler.

Except that, according to a federal warrant, her "sweethearts" are husbands; 15 of them in all and every one a sailor or a soldier.

Mrs. Drexler, 21, is held in the county jail, under $2,000 bail, here while government officials are attempting to find out the whys and wherefores of the continuous wedding march in which they say she played the part of the wife.

Federal authorities maintain that she became a "repeating bride" in order to draw war risk allowances for herself and a three-year-old child by her first marriage, in 1917, to Wilfred Taylor, a soldier.

To which Mrs. Drexler replies: "I loved them all. I didn't want their money. I was simply crazy about uniforms. I believe I loved Number 10 best. He bossed me around. Gosh, I don't remember how many I married."

Unless all the husbands are rounded up and brought into court it may be necessary to free the "repeating bride."

"And they'll have some job doing that," says she. "There is nothing harder to find than a soldier-husband A. W. O. L."

SEEK TO CHANGE ANTI-TRUST LAW

Hardwood Manufacturers to Re-open Cases in Which They Were Ruled Out

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 14.—Congress may be asked to modify the anti-trust law under which the supreme court held "the open competitive" plan of the American Hardwood Manufacturers' association was illegal. General L. E. Boyle, Washington, chief counsel, declared tonight after an all-day executive meeting of the board of directors.

A motion asking the court to modify the decision will be filed by General Boyle within 10 days, he said, and if this, too, is decided again the hardwood men, other organizations of a similar nature are expected to file test cases. These cases, he added, would seek to ascertain just how far an industry, situated as is the lumber business, with no central market, may go in gathering statistics for informative purposes only.

TWO FAREWELL LETTERS FOUND

Mrs. Ryan's Husband Says
She Took Poison While Under
"Moral Constraint"

PARIS, Jan. 14.—Further examination today of Thomas Stewart Ryan, of the Paris staff of the Chicago Tribune, held by the police in connection with the critical condition of his wife as a consequence, it is alleged, of the taking of three poison tablets while with Ryan in a hotel room here, developed two farewell letters of Mrs. Ryan in which the police say she announced her intention to commit suicide.

Counsel for the defendant has established that Ryan was not armed at the time and quote his wife as having said she took poison "under moral constraint."

Mrs. Ryan, a California woman, who, as a violinist is known as Miss Audrey Creighton, was much weaker today. She is in the American hospital at Neuilly.

Portuguese Sailor Termed Most Cruel of All Mutineers

LISBON, Jan. 14.—A sailor commonly known as "Golden Tooth," is the principal member among the ten persons who have been charged with participating in the assassination of Premier Granjo and several other Portuguese statesmen in the revolution which took place on the 19th of October.

The sailor admits that he accompanied the other soldiers and sailors in the raids upon the homes of the statesmen but contends that he did so to save the lives of those who had been chosen as victims of the revolutionaries.

"Golden Tooth" has figured in two dramatic incidents in the course of the investigation still progressing. Confronted by the son and brother of Admiral Machado Santo, founder of the Portuguese republic and one of the assassinated men, he was accused by both of them as one of the most cruel and insolent of the savage group of men who broke into the Santos home and dragged him to his death.

A similar scene occurred when Bertha da Maia, widow of Commander Carlos da Maia, another of the victims was brought face to face with this sailor in court. Pointing at him, she burst into sobs and cried: "There stands my husband's assassin. When the others hesitated, when on my knees before them, holding my baby in my arms, I implored them to spare my husband's life, that wild beast there, seeing they were inclined to mercy shouted at them and pushed my husband into their midst, asking them if they were going to let live the man who had sent them to Africa four years before. And they took him away and murdered him."

She Refused Him

"I was engaged to the prettiest little doll in Indiana, but my stomach and liver trouble had made me so grouchy that she broke it off. I tried all kinds of medicine and doctors and got no relief. The gas blew me up like a porcupine and I had awful colic attacks. Finally I heard of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and it has really fixed me up fine. I am now as good as ever." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

AMERICAN SUPPORTERS OF IRISH CAUSE URGE REJECTION OF TREATY

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The national councils of the Friends of Irish Freedom made public today a resolution expressing conviction that "free and independent" Irish republic, "separated from the British empire and controlling the destinies of the Irish people," is the only solution of the Irish problem.

Members of the council unanimously voted to "continue to give our utmost support to those in Ireland who stand for an independent republic."

but decline to recognize as republicans those who advocate a so-called 'external association with the British empire.'"

The resolution says, however, that the organization will do nothing to interfere with plans to remove the English military from Ireland and put the powers of government "limited though they may be," into the hands of Irishmen.
